Rancho Mirage by Stephen Dietz

Rancho Mirage is a biting funny black comedy about what happens when the fictions that hold our lives together are exposed. In this sharp and surprising sojourn into the psyche of modern-day America—where affluence is perhaps our greatest mirage—three couples, long-time friends, find themselves at a dinner party where everyone finally decides to tell the truth. RANCHO MIRAGE asks what connects us when our youth, our dreams, and our last bottle of wine are gone. Star Tribune (Minneapolis, MN). “Rife with recognizable aches as well as biting laughs...sharp-tongued...RANCHO MIRAGE arrives as fulsome theater not easy sitcom, laughs aplenty, lessons intact.” —The Denver Post. “Dietz serves up a sumptuous menu of topical themes while skewering the denizens who believe their privileged lives should cloak them from suffering the indignities of the less advantaged...unsettling, yet comical...totally entertaining...” —TalkinBroadway.com

Dixie Swim Club by Jones, Hope, & Wooten

Five Southern women, whose friendships began many years ago on their college swim team, set aside a long weekend every August to recharge those relationships. Free from husbands, kids and jobs, they meet at the same beach cottage on North Carolina's Outer Banks to catch up, laugh and meddle in each other's lives. THE DIXIE SWIM CLUB focuses on four of those weekends and spans a period of thirty-three years. Sheree, the spunky team captain, continues to be the group's leader. Dinah, the wisecracking overachiever, is a career dynamo determined to hold on to her looks and youth as long as possible. The self-deprecating and acerbic Vernadette, has decided to just give in and embrace the chaos. And sweet, eager-to-please Jeri Neal experiences a late entry into motherhood that takes them all by surprise. THE DIXIE SWIM CLUB is the story of these five unforgettable

Laughter on the 23rd Floor by Neil Simon

Inspired by the playwright's youthful experience as a staff writer on Sid Caesar's Your Show of Shows, with all the attendant comic drama as the harried writing staff frantically scrambles to top each other with gags while competing for the attention of star madman "Max Prince".
